Should Mauri's face an unplanned closure for any reason out of our control (flood, tornado, fire, pandemic, etc.), teachers will take advantage of all online options such as Zoom, YouTube, Google Classroom etc. to get instruction to our students virtually. In the event that this closure occurs mid-season, communication will be sent out immediately to each family. If closure happens mid-month teachers will continue with instruction via online and tuition will stay at 100%, no cancellations, no refunds. After the end of the month recreational students will have the option to continue virtual classes at a 50% discount or cancel their enrollment at Mauri's. Any student who cancels and then reenrolls later will be responsible for paying a new registration fee.
